

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

Ford Sherin began the celebration of life together as husband and wife on the nineteenth and thirty-seventh, and the twentieth and thirty-eighth, of the century of service and devotion to the state and neighborhood and.

His long dedication to the values of caring and service have helped make South Dakota a great state. On the twentieth and thirty-eighth, there was an occasion of great joy and love as friends and loved ones gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs.

It is fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota should commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the Sherins.

I, George S. Mickelson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 24, 1987, as

MR. AND MRS. FORD SHERIN DAY and join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued happiness in a state that stands proud of their contribution and commitment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Eighth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
